THE CITY

Horst Lieber/Shutterstock.com

Friedrichshafen, which started as a small settlement back in the 5th Century, has emerged as one of Germany's premier holiday destinations. Nestled alongside the Northern shore of Lake Constance, and set against the backdrop of the magnificent Alps, this thriving city is the perfect place to relax and to enjoy nature. However, it has much more to show off, as painstakingly rebuilt after its near complete destruction in the Second World War, Friedrichshafen has made history as the birthplace of the Zeppelin aircraft. Visit the city's renowned Zeppelin museum or embark on an exciting voyage on board of a real Zeppelin ship to experience Friedrichshafen's history.

DO & SEE

trabantos/Shutterstock.com

Friedrichshafen is beautifully located on the Northern banks of Lake Constance, offering unlimited possibilities: why not walk along the lake and enjoy the amazing view of the Austrian and Swiss Alps or climb up on the lookout tower to get a view over the landscape. The town also offers interesting exhibitions like The Zeppelin Museum where you can learn about the history of the flying machines, and, as so, you will certainly find yourself busy with exciting activities.

The Zeppelin Museum

The Zeppelin museum is a must-see for all aviation fans, as it boasts the world's largest selection of airships, including full-scale reconstruction of parts of the famous Hindenburg Zeppelin.

SHOPPING

Shevchenko Andrey/Shutterstock.com

The best place to go shopping in Friedrichshafen is the pedestrian zone in the centre of the city. Here you can buy pretty much everything from German beer to Swiss chocolate, and shops are also good for souvenir-hunting. On the other hand, the lakeside promenade is a perfect choice for local food shopping: the mouth-watering smell of fresh Lake Constance seafood is guaranteed to boost your appetite.

Bargain-hunters should not forget to visit the flea market in Friedrichshafen, where thousands of merchants open up their stalls at dawn to sell off their goods.

The city also has some larger department stores in the pedestrian zone as well as shopping malls outside of the city centre in the surrounding districts, such as in Fischbach.

Fiederer Bookstore

The nice little bookstore Fiederer is a veteran of the Häfler shopping world. On the corner of Eugen Bolz Road, it is easily accessible from your shopping route in Friedrichshafen, and bookworms from various literature directions will surely find something interesting.

Passport / Visa

Germany can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of most European countries, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Best Time to Visit

The best time to visit Friedrichshafen is the summer, between May and September, as you can enjoy both the outdoor activities as well as many events during that period. However, the autumn can be nice for having a walk along the lake, whereas the winter is often dominated by heavy fog due to high humidity.

Public Transport

Friedrichshafen has an excellent infrastructure with an extensive network of buses and some train connections that can both be checked on the same website. Travelling by bike is a popular alternative, and many visitors rent bicycles for the duration of their stay.
